Grey House Publishing Announces the Forty-Fourth Edition of Hudson's Washington News Media Contacts Directory

Grey House Publishing is proud to announce the publication of the 2011 edition of Hudson's Washington News Media Contacts Directory. This directory provides immediate access to over 3,900 need-to-know contacts within Washington's newspapers, syndicates, radio contacts, magazines and newsletters. The directory is the most detailed, comprehensive and current reference source available for media contacts in the DC area.

Within the last few years the newspaper industry has been hard hit, with many newspapers downsizing, changing ownership and going out of business. And simultaneously, they are reducing their Washington correspondent staffing levels. With its up-to-date and comprehensive coverage of DC news media, this edition of Hudson's Washington News Media Contacts Directory reflects the most current changes to the market place and staffing reassignments.

This 2011 edition covers over 3,000 news organizations and their holdings – defined mostly as publications or media stations owned or managed by the parent listing – and over 4,000 key media contacts, many with personnel contact information. You will find eight major chapters and 20 subcategories:

- ❖ News Services: This chapter includes several subcategories – general news; specialized news; photo services; and city wires.
- ❖ Newspapers with D.C. Bureaus: The national newspapers in this chapter have news bureaus in D.C. These listings are divided into general news and specialized news.
- ❖ Newspapers Headquartered in the D.C. Metro Area: Again divided into general news and specialized news, the newspapers in this chapter are all headquartered in either D.C., or areas of Maryland and Virginia that comprise the D.C. metro area.
