

RECENT REVIEWS

This is Who We Were: In the 1950s

“An offspring in the 13-volume “Working Americans” series, which assessed Americans by class, occupation, and social cause, this title examines a single decade. Profiles of 34 families across the socioeconomic spectrum take up half the book, with descriptions of their lives at home and work and in their community. Shorter middle sections provide context and include a listing of historic milestones, an economic overview, and a collection of representative media. A substantial demographic analysis, drawing on U.S. census data, concludes the work. VERDICT An engaging snapshot for nostalgia buffs and researchers alike.

- Library Journal

Grey House Publishing

4919 Route 22, PO Box 56 Amenia, NY 12501
(800) 562-2139 FAX (518) 789-0556
www.greyhouse.com books@greyhouse.com