A Treasure Worth Seeking: After years of searching for the brother she'd never known, Erin O'Shea had finally found his San Francisco address. But she was unaware that she was about to walk into a shocking drama of family lies - and to meet an intriguing, infuriating man who would change her life. Lance was a G-man who never dreamed that his feelings would drive him to break every rule in the book - and put his career and even Erin's future on the line. Shadows of Yesterday: Leigh Branson had lost her husband eight months before when he was tragically killed on the job. Now a fateful meeting on a lonesome highway brought a new man into her life - one with secrets and the power to make her lonely once again. Chad Dillon was determined to make Leigh care for him, but there were no guarantees that his love could protect her from the very thing she feared most. Prime Time: More than anything else, cable TV reporter Andrea Malone wanted a network job. And it could be hers if she gained a coveted interview with the aging General Ratliff. One obstacle was Lyon Ratliff, the general's watchdog of a son. Andrea had a plan, but had no way of knowing she would have to choose between the ruthless demands of her profession and the equally strong dictates of the heart.

Bittersweet Rain: Caroline Dawson survived the slow death of her husband, Roscoe Lancaster, the richest man in the county and her senior by three decades. But she feared she might not survive Rink Lancaster, her husband's son. He had introduced Caroline to her first tremulous taste of love - and then broke her heart. Now Rink says he wants to settle his father's estate, but how he really wants is to settle the score with Caroline. Sweet Anger: Television newscaster Kari Wayne blamed her shattered life on one man - D.A. Hunter McKee. He hadn't directly caused her husband's death, but he had destroyed his reputation. Still, the desire that exploded every time they met was almost overwhelming. Now, Kari will begin a desperate search for the truth about her husband's mysterious death...and about the man she wants to hate who somehow awakens within her the kind of passion she has never known before. Eloquent Silence: Lauri is a dedicated young teacher for the deaf. Her past conceals a wound still unhealed, and she uses her career to hide her loneliness. Drake, daytime TV's most popular star, has two heartaches - the daughter he believes will never have a normal life and the dead wife he can't forget. Jennifer is the beautiful hearing-impaired child who may become a pawn between the man and the woman she needs the most.

A dead body, discovered by a hapless plant thief blithely trespassing in a rural Massachusetts wetland, turns out to belong to a woman with a past, name of Sandra Nichols. Wrongful death? Murder one? We'll leave that to Jerry Kennedy. Inasmuch as Sandra Nichols was murdered several months before her body was found, alibis are fairly easy to come by, even for Peter Wade, Sandra's ex, who is the most likely suspect. On the criminal side of the law, if the defendant isn't caught in the act, there are three things a prosecutor must prove, all of which Wade has in spades: motive, means, & opportunity. The evidence is too elusive to establish Wade's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt; wrongful death is easier: all Jerry Kennedy needs to do is make Wade's part in Sandra's death 51 percent certain.
