Food & Beverage Market Place

"This set can be used to find basic information or to track trends in a dynamic industry. Recommended for large public or academic libraries."

-ARBA

"Each volume contains helpful user guides and key that describes the fields of data that appear in that chapter. The publisher includes more fax numbers, Websites, company descriptions, executives, and brand names. The publication has been updated through September 2012.... This publication is essential for researchers in the food industry, and large academic and public libraries."

-ARBA

"Grey House acquired Thomas Food Industry Register (1991-98) and combined it with their own Food and Beverage Market Place (CH, May '96) and Food and Beverage Market Place Suppliers Guide (1999-2000) to produce this version, whose three volumes contain more than 8,000 pages and 40,000 entries... This is an excellent resource... Recommended for academic, public, and corporate libraries."

-Choice

"There are over 40,000 companies featured here in such varied industries as food and beverage manufacturers, equipment, transportation firms, warehouse companies, importers and exporters, and catalogs and industry resources... Thomas Food & Beverage Market Place is an essential purchase for those in the food industry but will also be useful in public libraries where needed. Much of the information will be difficult and time consuming to locate without this handy three-volume ready-reference source."

-ARBA

"Given its comprehensive coverage, this set is highly valuable to professionals in the food and beverage industry. It should be considered for purchase by academic libraries supporting food service or hospitality management programs and by large public libraries."

-ARBA

"Provides a vast array of information, never-before available, on companies which produce the recognized brands seen on store shelves and in package stores. This is information that has either never been compiled before, or has been scattered in dozens of niche information resources... Food and Beverage Market Place is designed to provide important market access to any organization which has a product or service for
