

RECENT REVIEWS

Encyclopedia of Gun Control & Gun Rights

"...This second edition is a most welcome update... An insightful introductory essay, supplemented by statistical tables, provides a solid overview to an ambitious encyclopedia featuring over 300 entries on organizations (ATF, NRA), laws (state, federal), events (Columbine, Virginia Tech), and individuals (Brady, Obama)... This well-illustrated work presents the various sides of the issues in a fair, nonbiased manner."

- CHOICE

"The larger typeface and format make the book easier to read than the previous edition, while the easy-to-use alphabetical arrangements of people, lobbying groups, associations, and legal materials remain the same. There are more than 300 entries in the book, with 36 new articles, including entries on the Virginia Tech shootings as well as the Tucson shooting involving U.S. Congresswoman Gabrielle Giffords. This is a good updating of a solid source of material on gun rights and gun control."

- Booklist

"The entries are balanced and well written, include photographs and charts... For those seeking a reference work in the debate on firearms regulation, this book would be a good choice."

- Library Journal

"Utter (political science, Lamar Univ.) and Spitzer (political science, SUNY, Cortland) present 338 alphabetically arranged articles on gun control and gun rights primarily in the United States... Entries address a wide range of topics... BOTTOM LINE: Utter and Spitzer's valuable and comprehensive work is recommended for collections serving individuals interested in firearms, political science, sociology, and legal issues."

- Library Journal

Review

". . . unbiased commentary on the laws, court decisions and political turning points in the debate make it a valuable resource."

- Liberty, June 2000

"This will be useful source for students as it provides a wealth of information, is basically objective, and is readily accessible in terms of ease-of-use and writing style. . . .Recommended."

- Book Report, March/April 2000

Previously Published by ABC Clío

Grey House Publishing

4919 Route 22, PO Box 56 Amenia, NY 12501
(800) 562-2139 FAX (518) 789-0556
www.greyhouse.com books@greyhouse.com