Grey House Publishing Announces the 2022 Edition of The Complete Resource Guide for People with Disabilities

Grey House Publishing is proud to announce the publication of the 2022 Edition of the Complete Resource Guide for People with Disabilities.

This 2022 edition of the award-winning Complete Resource Guide for People with Disabilities is an invaluable resource for all those living with a disability and those committed to empowering them. It offers thousands of ways for people with disabilities to succeed at work, in school, and in their community.

Careful research and compilation of the best data available has earned The Complete Resource Guide for People with Disabilities the honor of being a repeat recipient of the National Mature Media Award and the National Health Information Award, as well as being a go-to resource among educators, librarians and the disability community.

This comprehensive resource opens with the following valuable front matter:

- Glossary of Disability-Related Terms
- 2020 Annual Report on People with Disabilities in America
- “Disability Impacts All of Us” infographic from the CDC
- 2020 Progress Report on National Disability Policy: Increasing Disability Employment
- Transition Guide to Postsecondary Education and Employment for Students and Youth with Disabilities

Coverage continues with 33 subject-specific sections, from Arts & Entertainment to Vocational & Employment Programs; 3 sections of Rehabilitation Facilities; and 9 disability-specific sections, from Aging to Visual. Most sections include a range of resources, including Associations, Products, Camps, Living Facilities, and Resources. Many sections, like Camps and Education, are arranged by state. The comprehensive Table of Contents guides you through the 33 chapters and nearly 100 subchapters contained in this rich resource.

Sure to save hours of Internet research time, The Complete Resource Guide for People with Disabilities provides comprehensive, critical and immediate information in one source that can be accessed quickly and easily. This edition provides 9,367 descriptive listings, 23,933 key contacts, 7,561 fax numbers, 5,894 email addresses, and 8,317 web sites.

Following the listings is an appendix of state-by-state statistics from the 2020 Annual Disability Statistics Compendium. The first part of this section includes tables that provide numbers of disabled individuals by state, and by disability—hearing, vision, cognitive, ambulatory, and self-care and independent-living disabilities. The second part of this section includes state-by-state numbers of individuals who are employed, also broken down by the categories listed above.

This new 2022 edition also includes three indexes to provide quick and easy access to the listings contained in the Resource Guide:

- Subject Index: Organizes directory listings by relevant alphabetical topics, i.e. autism, language disorders
- Geographic Index: Organizes listings alphabetically by state
- Entry & Publisher Index: Lists all directory listings alphabetically

Appropriate for both the professional and the lay-person, it is an important addition to the collections of libraries large and small, public and academic, as well as resource libraries for employees across the range of disabilities-related professions.

Praise for previous editions:

“This comprehensive directory is an excellent starting point...a very useful resource for public, hospital, and consumer-health libraries as well as social-service agencies and nonprofits serving the disabled.”

—Booklist

“...thousands of resources...covering a diverse range of services...separate section for specific disabilities...from aging to mobility and from the blind and deaf to speech and language disorders. Libraries...will want to consider...”
