Grey House Publishing Announces the 2022 Edition of R.R. Bowker's *Complete Video Directory

Grey House Publishing is proud to announce the 2022 edition of R.R. Bowker's *Complete Video Directory. Since 1988, the Complete Video Directory has been the go-to source for complete bibliographic information on the thousands of video options available for public, community, and academic libraries across the nation.

Completely updated for 2022, this 7,900-page reference directory provides details on 72,000 entertainment and performance titles, as well as 150,000 educational and special interest videos (documentaries, how-to's, certain sports titles, and other videos directed toward specialized audiences) and educational programs.

2022's Complete Video Directory is separated into four large volumes and contains ten thorough indexes. All indexes (except the Awards Index) are presented alphabetically, then numerically, ensuring effortless research for the user.

Volume I begins with a special "How to Use" guide, with information on editorial policies, a history of the publication, how to find specific entries, prices, arrangement of subjects, and more, followed by an enlarged sample video entry and a Key to Abbreviations. Following this is the Awards Index, arranged chronologically by the year in which the award was presented. Listed here are movies available on video that have won major international film industry awards, television programs that have won top Emmy awards, and video programs that have been chosen as the Best Program of the Year by the Video Software Dealers' Association (VSDA).

The Entertainment/Performance Title Index (A – S) comprises the remainder of Volume I. Each entry in this Index contains definitive bibliographic information about each video, including: Title, Year Produced, Genre, Running Time, Closed-Captioned, Cast, Award(s), ISBN, Price, Distributor, MPAA Rating, and more.

Volume II begins with the remainder of the Entertainment/Performance Title Index (T – Z), followed by a Cast/Director Index and the Genre Index, arranging all Title Index entries alphabetically in more than 363 categories. Next comes the List of Genre Headings followed by the Series Index, Spanish-Language Index and Closed-Captioned Index. Lastly, there is the Manufacturer Name Index and Wholesaler and Distributor Name Index.

Volume III comprises the Educational/Special Interest Title Index (A – N), featuring more than 150,000 educational videos, documentaries, how-to videos, and more. Each entry in this Index contains similar bibliographic information to the entries in the Entertainment/Performance Title Index.

The remainder of the Educational/Special Interest Title Index (O – Z) is completed in Volume IV. A List of Subject Headings and the Subject Index follow, encompassing a wide range of approximately 550 categories, from Acupuncture and Anthropology to Word Processing and Yoga. Responding to users' requests, a Series Index has also been added, used to identify and detail video series designated by manufacturers, as well as more popular films with continuing characters or themes (e.g. Rocky). Finally, finishing up Volume IV is the Closed-Captioned Index, Manufacturer Name Index and Wholesaler & Distributor Name Index, both with cross-references to the Title Index entries.

For years, R.R. Bowker's Complete Video Directory has served as a top-shelf resource for librarians and their young patrons across the country. This four-volume directory is an indispensable reference source, selection guide, and acquisition tool for any video collector.
