

Table of Contents

Publisher's Note	ix
Introduction	xiii
Historical Timeline	xxix
1. Royal Traditions
Capital Punishment in the Colonies (1607–1670)	1
2. A Competition of Faith
Beginning of the Anti-Death Penalty Movement (1690s)	27
3. A Reason for Violence
America and the Ideals of the Enlightenment (1764–1790)	57
4. Acts of Cruelty
The Origins of Cruel and Unusual Punishment (1641–1790s)	79
5. The Roots of Abolition
Early Studies and Laws Against the Death Penalty (1792–1820)	109
6. A Private Affair?
“Jacksonian Reform” and Capital Punishment (1800–1850)	127
7. Mandating Death
States Struggle with Sentencing (1800s–1840s)	143
8. The First Reform
The Debate Begins in Earnest (1840s–1852)	161
9. The Second Reform
The Progressive Movement Takes on Capital Punishment (1900s)	189

10. Industrial Execution

Invention of the Electric Chair (1880–1890) 209

11. A Test of Cruelty

The Evolving Definition of Punishment (1878–1910) 229

12. A Deadly Air

The Gas Chamber Is Introduced (1920s) 247

13. Execution at War

The Military and Capital Punishment (1775–present) 265

14. Crimes Against the Nation

Treason, Sedition, and Espionage (1798–1953) 287

15. Random Acts

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (1940s–1970s) 311

16. The Right to Kill

Ongoing Support for the Death Penalty (1950s–1970s) 353

17. A Commitment to Do No Harm

*Physician Involvement and Lethal Injection in Capital Punishment
(1970s–2000s)* 381

18. Rational Behavior

Capital Punishment and Insanity (1920s–1980s) 401

19. Age of Guilt

Juvenile Offenders and the Criminal Justice System (1800s–2000s) 423

20. Wrongful Execution

The Fallibility of the Legal System (1912–1980s) 443

21. In the Interest of Survivors
The Victim's Rights Movement (1950s–present)	461
22. Death and Politics
A Rise in Support for the Death Penalty (1980s–1990s)	485
23. Extreme Crimes
Assassinations and Terrorist Attacks (1900s–present)	501
24. The Ability to Understand
The Death Penalty and Mental Capacity (1800s–present)	537
25. States of Execution
The Abolition Movement in Individual States (2000s)	555
26. Methods of Execution
Pharmaceutical Companies Become Involved in the Abolition Movement (2010s)	577
27. The Question of Deterrence
Societal Effects of the Death Penalty (1800s–present)	595
28. The Future of the Death Penalty
Changing Public Perceptions of Criminal Justice (2010s)	609
29. Conclusion
An Evolving History of Violence	625

Appendices

Notes	633
Primary & Secondary Sources.....	645
Glossary	649
Historical Snapshots	669
Bibliography.....	747
About the Author.....	771
Index	773
